WANTED

Information

On Wednesday August 15, 2001 around 11:00 am police received a radio call for two men shot at Polly Ester's Nightclub at 262 Friend Street, Boston. Two employees were found in the basement of the building suffering from gunshot wounds, the manager 36-year-old Todd Thomasco died as a result of his wounds and the second victim was seriously injured.

Further investigation revealed that this was an armed robbery. The suspect entered the basement and demanded the contents of the safe and then shot both men at close range. As the Homicide Detectives continue with the investigation they are interested in speaking with anyone who may have been in the area or have information regarding this incident.

Detectives are releasing a photo of an individual that they are interested in identifying to determine if he may have information. Contact Sgt. Det. Dan Coleman at (617) 343-4470.
